

Discussion Questions

1. In this story, Timothy tends to look past the difficulties he experiences in life. How is this a strength? How is it a weakness?
2. Did you ever make a list of the aspects you wanted in a partner?
3. Did you have requirements that you later found not to be so important?
4. Who was your favorite character in this story?
5. Was there a particular scene that stood out to you in this story?
6. At the end, when Timothy confesses his feelings to Maryann, do you feel she was too hard on him? Too easy? Just right?